

Table of Contents

Editor's Preface	3
List of Contributors	7
Countering purism: confronting the emergence of new varieties in a training program for community language workers Margaret Florey	9
Language endangerment, language documentation and capacity building: challenges from New Guinea William A. Foley	28
Dictionary making in endangered speech communities Ulrike Mosel	39
Linguistic study by speakers: efforts of an Institute E. Annamalai	55
Capacity building for some endangered languages of Russia: Voices from Tundra and Taiga Tjeerd de Graaf and Hidetoshi Shiraishi	59
Capacity building in an African context Gerrit J. Dimmendaal	71
Language planning in West Africa – who writes the script? Friederike Lüpke	90
The need for capacity building in Mexico: Misión de Chichimecas, a case study Yolanda Lastra	108
Training speakers of indigenous languages of Latin America at a US university Anthony C. Woodbury and Nora C. England	122
Language documentation and archiving, or how to build a better corpus Heidi Johnson	140

Planning multimedia documentation David Nathan	154
Documentation in practice: developing a linked media corpus of South Efate Nicholas Thieberger	169
Reconceiving metadata: language documentation through thick and thin David Nathan and Peter K. Austin	179
Language Documentation and Description, Vol 1 Table of Contents	189